

GLOBAL JET

*THE ULTIMATE

GLOBAL JET

For people who know what they want, and are accustomed to getting it, Global Jet is not a luxury. Our quality of service is geared entirely towards this clientele, which has forged the reputation of our company since it was founded in 2000, and made Global Jet an undisputed leader in business aviation.

The higher your expectations, the more we will go out of our way to meet them, whether this means chartering you a flight or managing your jet.

Global Jet's headquarters is located in Geneva. We also have offices in Paris, Moscow, Beijing and Monaco.

Throughout the world, our team of aviation specialists assists you and anticipates your needs. With our particularly wide range of aircraft, we are able to meet all your requirements in terms of capacity, facilities and range. There's no limit on service before, during and after the flight.

You know what you want; Global Jet knows how to make it happen.

SERVICE ON BOARD
THE SKY IS NO LIMIT

SERVICE ON BOARD

Some people do not need to ask, they are accustomed to having their needs met. At Global Jet, we offer our exceptional clientele an exceptional experience, comparable to that offered in the world's top luxury hotels. The expertise, diligence and discretion of our crews contribute greatly to this.

Our flight attendants are trained to the top Swiss hotel schools' standards, offering five-star service far beyond mere comfort.

They customize your flight experience, taking care of every little detail from a peaceful, refined, tailored atmosphere on board to quality fresh products selected from our best suppliers. They pay particular attention to your likes and preferences. With each journey, you will enjoy the pleasure of finding everything you like, need, and which defines you.

What you want is non-negotiable, it is part of who you are. So tell us your every need, and we will make it happen.

CHARTER

For people who know no limits but set targets to achieve, Global Jet offers solutions to make these possible.

Taking care of your travel needs, as and when you require, is only the start for us. What sets Global Jet apart is the level and quality of service offered which exceeds all standards. Global Jet's success is based on excellence, anticipating all the needs of its exceptional clientele: what is important to you is even more so for us.

With its long experience in private aviation, our sales team takes care of all your chartering requirements, offering you tailor-made solutions to your travel needs, wherever and whenever. Our expertise lies precisely in our ability to understand our customers and identify their needs, setting these as our top priority.

FLEET

Global Jet manages an ever-growing fleet of business jets, for private and commercial operation, enabling it to cater for every need and taste.

This flexibility is one of our main advantages. Whether you wish to fly on an Airbus, Gulfstream, Global Express, Falcon, Challenger, Embraer, Learjet or other aircraft, we have models of all sizes, capacities and VIP fittings to meet your needs.

Through our efficient network, we can always find you the best aircraft adapted to your needs, offering you Global Jet's renowned level of excellence. Our customers are not accustomed to compromise. They expect certain levels of safety and comfort, and our job is to ensure they get these. Global Jet boasts a modern fleet maintained to exacting standards with a range of different atmospheres and fittings.

As traveling on your terms is a priority for you, we will make it ours, too.

FLIGHT SUPPORT

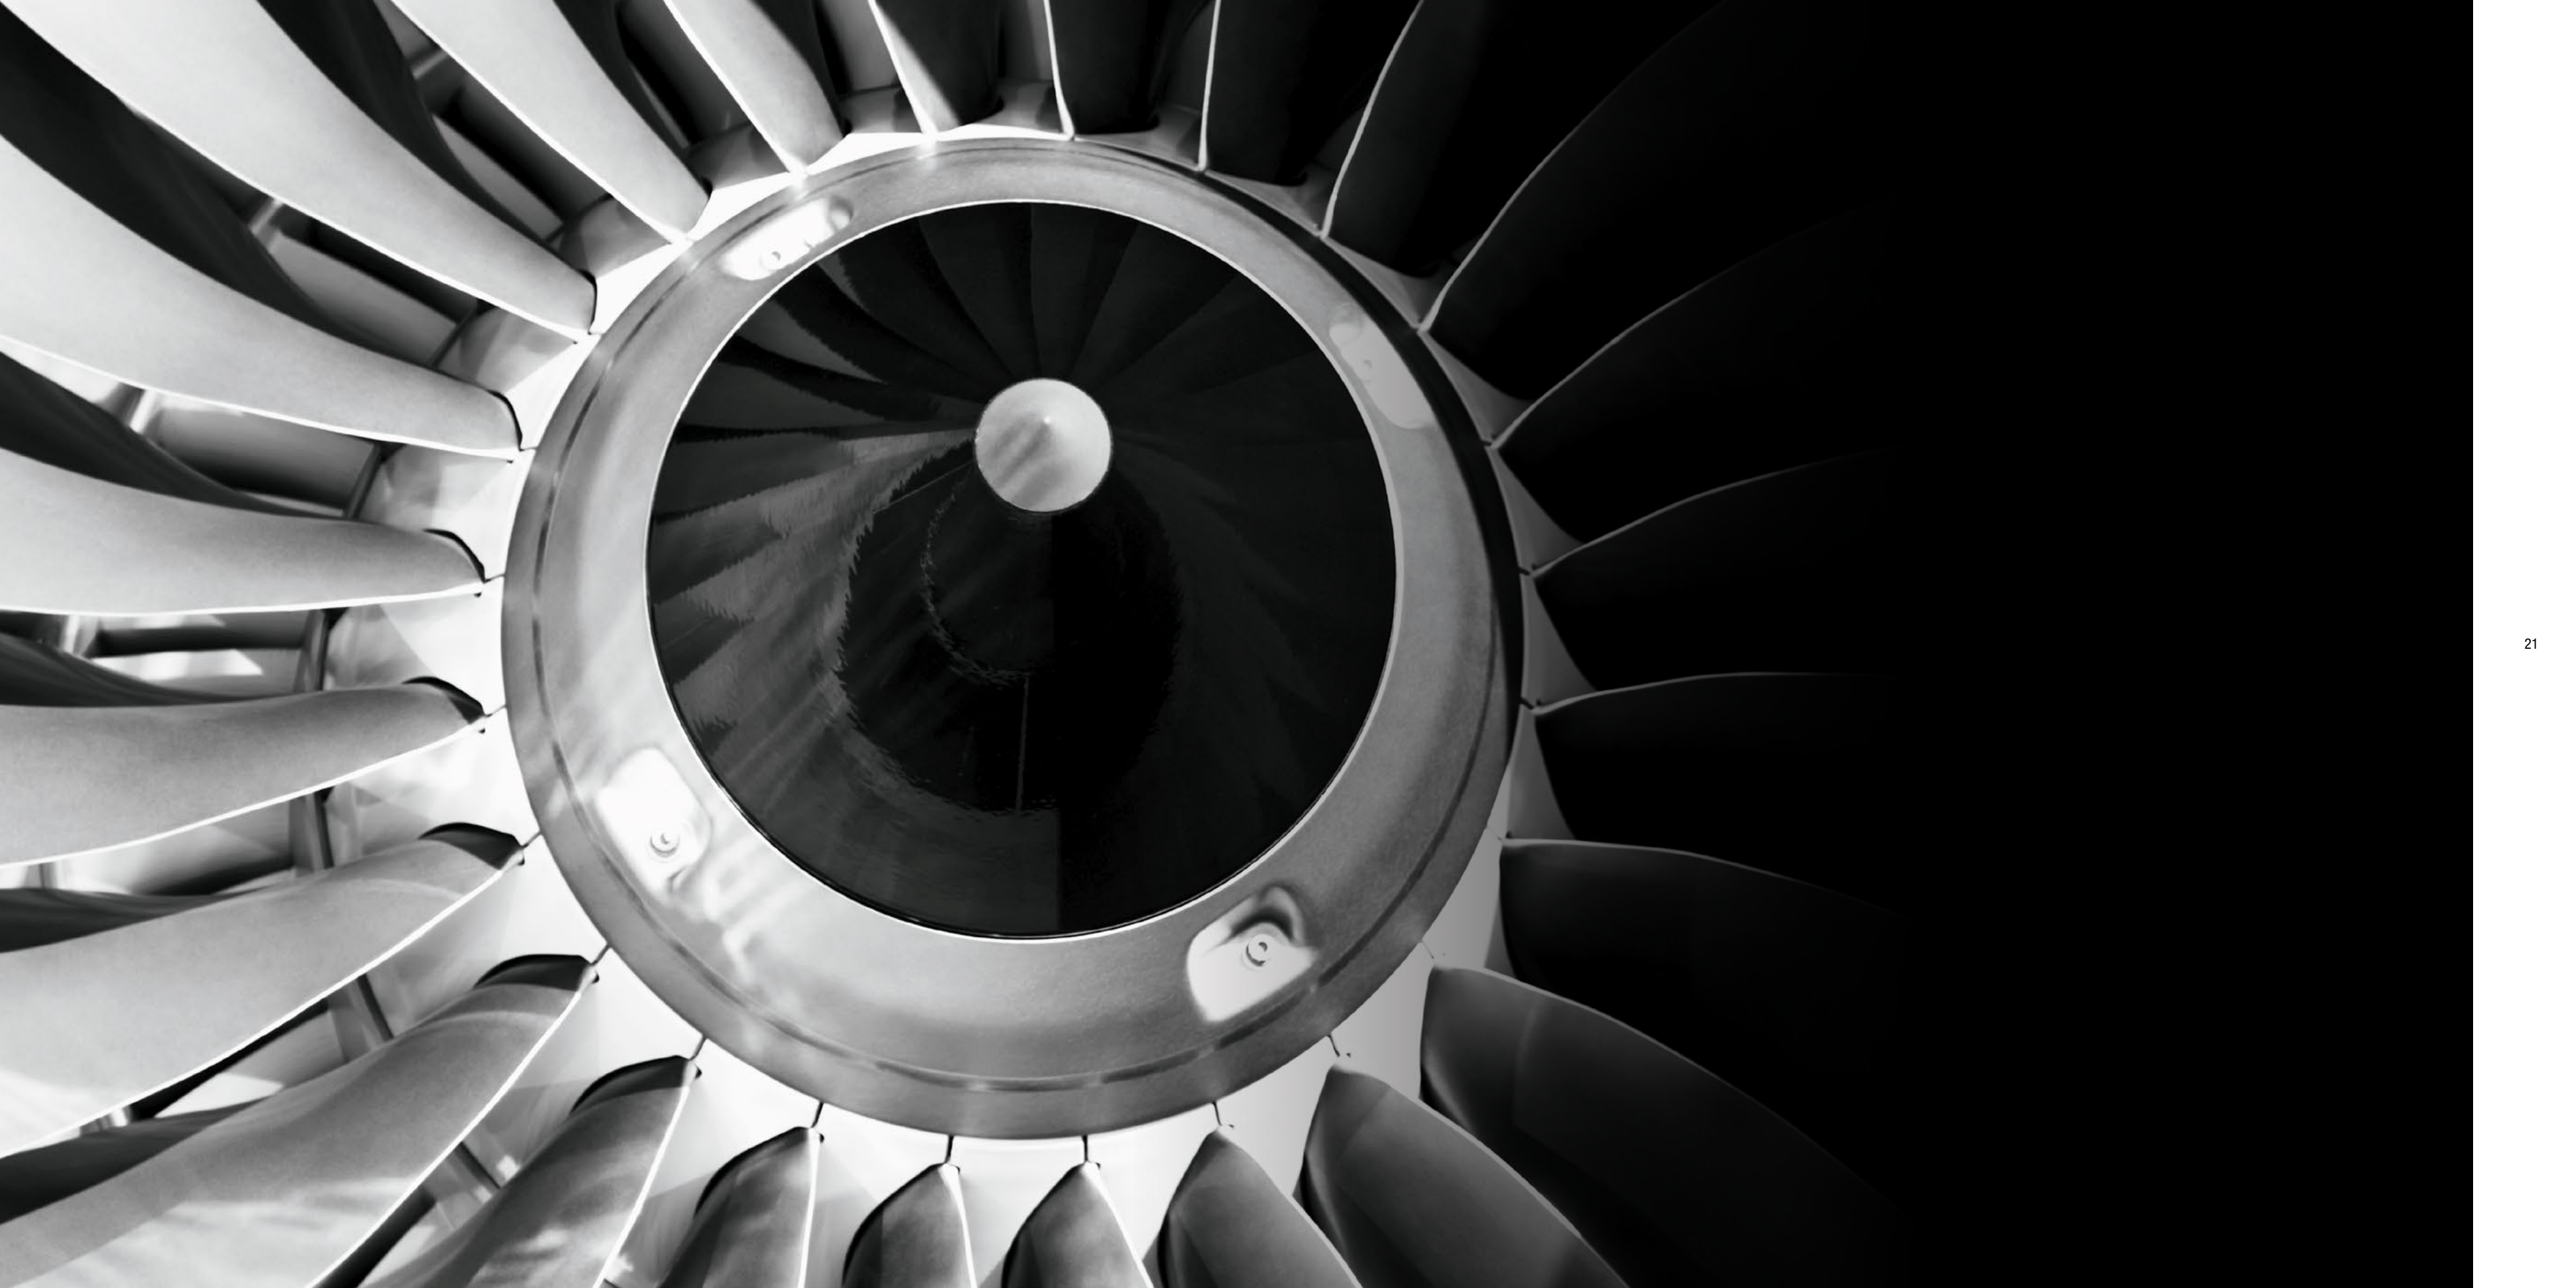

Whereas some people focus on what can be done, others concentrate on what really counts: what needs to be accomplished.

For Global Jet, there is always a solution, if you can harness the right resources. Our operations centre with its team of dispatchers and flight coordinators is on duty 24/7 to meet your every need. The commercial, technical and regulatory expertise of our highly professional staff enables us to organize your flight in the shortest possible time, without ever compromising on your comfort and safety.

No one can be expected to achieve the impossible. But where others give up, we go the extra mile to offer you a solution as close to impossible as you can get. This has earned us success and the loyalty of our customers. Your satisfaction is the reward for our efforts.

MANAGEMENT

To understand the needs of an exceptional clientele, you need exceptional people. People of great quality committed to their work beyond what is expected and always willing to improve.

Here at Global Jet, we are proud to be operating aircraft ranging right across the product portfolios of the main manufacturers. On a daily basis, we operate nearly thirty different aircraft types and we are supremely successful at it.

The excellence of all the employees at Global Jet is a guarantee of satisfaction for all jet owners who entrust their aircraft to our partner companies. They build a relationship of trust, ensuring jet owners' peace of mind as their primary return on investment.

Besides receiving essential financial monthly reports, these very particular customers expect to entirely rely on professional teams and they offer them just that. This trust is earned through our administrative and financial control, as well as our standards of maintenance and aircraft safety.

Because you never compromise on what is important, Global Jet never compromises on the quality of service offered to you.

SALES & ACQUISITIONS

In the business aviation market, the term «Customer» does not really do justice to the standards expected and the level of the transactions at stake; «Partner» is perhaps a more fitting word.

Our primary advantage lies in our in-depth knowledge of this business. With our experience, long-standing relationships with the main manufacturers, efficient networks, administrative and technical expertise, we assist you every step of the aircraft sales and acquisitions process by optimizing your resources.

The key issue remains trust on the part of all the stakeholders, buyers, sellers and brokers, for whom confidentiality, fairness, diligence and expertise are requirements for a successful transaction.

Our experience acquired through chartering and managing private jets makes all the difference when it comes to aircraft selection, technical specifications, cabin design and layout, pre-sales inspection and final delivery.

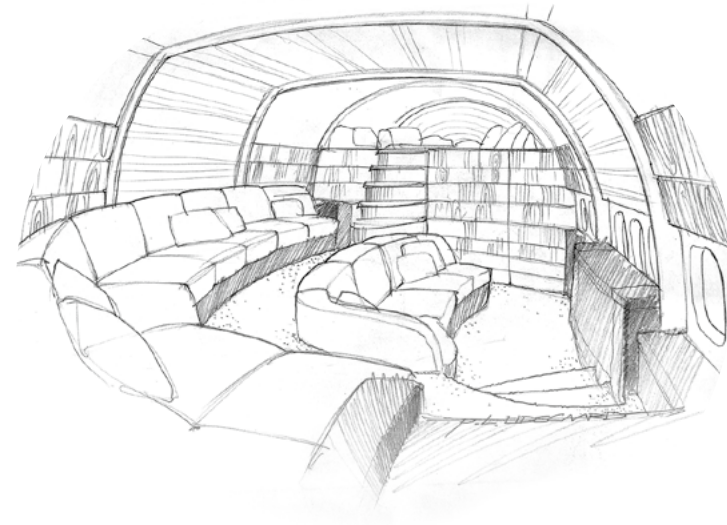

Rather than taking our word that we are the best partner you can have in the field, come and meet us to see this for yourself.

DESIGN & COMPLETION

Pegasus Design is an independant design consultancy which specializes in private aviation.

Exteriors and interiors are treated like jewels to be polished to personalized perfection. In their quest to fulfill your every need, want and dream, no stone is left unturned. For every specific requirement, a technical and artistic solution can be found. A team of professionals takes you through every step of the process, from the initial drawings to delivery, with meticulous attention to details.

For them, what some would call luxury is merely an attentive response to the needs of a clientele accustomed to the highest level of quality available in the world today.
